This issue of two stamps highlights the architecture of the iconic Sydney Opera House featuring two close-up photographs, one of the north and the other, of the west elevation.

Queen Elizabeth II formally opened the building 50 years ago, on 20 October 1973. Acclaimed throughout the world and recognised as a masterpiece, this extraordinary building was designed by Danish architect Jørn Utzon (1918–2008), who was awarded the project in 1957 following an international design competition. Its prominent location on Bennelong Point is a fitting response to its spectacular harbour setting.

Construction of the podium began in 1959, while Utzon and a team of architects and engineers explored how to build the Opera House's shell-shaped roof. Between 1958 and 1962, the roof design evolved through various iterations: parabolic, ellipsoid and, finally, the spherical geometry that so brilliantly formed the shells and is considered a milestone in 20th-century architecture.

While Utzon's design was hailed, the judges' premonition of associated controversy was correct. Utzon resigned from the project in 1966, before its completion, facing increasing criticism of the time and cost of the project. Australian architect Peter Hall (1931–95) took on the mammoth task of completing the project.

The original cost estimate was $7 million; the final cost was $102 million, largely paid for by a state lottery. Construction took 14 years and involved 10,000 construction workers. As well as being an architectural icon, the Opera House is Australia's number one tourist destination.

The coronation of the new sovereign of the United Kingdom and Commonwealth realms, His Majesty King Charles III, took place at Westminster Abbey on 6 May 2023. It was the first coronation service in almost 70 years. King Charles is the 40th British monarch to be crowned.

Their Majesties King Charles and Queen Camilla arrived at Westminster Abbey after departing from Buckingham Palace. The King and Queen were transported in the Diamond Jubilee State Coach, constructed almost entirely in Australia.

The crowning of a sovereign is an ancient ceremony steeped in tradition and consists of the recognition, the oath, the anointing, the investiture and crowning, the enthronement and the homage. The King made a solemn vow to serve God, and the people of the nations within the realms.

On 14 November 2023, His Majesty King Charles III celebrates his 75th birthday. The eldest child of the late Queen Elizabeth II and Prince Philip, the Duke of Edinburgh, was born Charles Philip Arthur George in 1948, at Buckingham Palace. In 1952, he became heir apparent when Elizabeth acceded to the throne on the death of her father. As heir apparent, Charles adopted, as tradition dictated, the titles Duke of Cornwall and, in Scottish peerage, Duke of Rothesay, Earl of Carrick, Baron Renfrew, Lord of the Isles, and Prince and Great Steward of Scotland.

The Prince's Foundation, established by HM King Charles III as His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, is just one of more than 20 charities that he has played a key role in establishing.

Each year, Australia Post releases a Christmas stamp issue, featuring domestic and international card-rate stamps that present both traditional and secular Christmas themes.

This year's traditional Christmas stamp designs infuse some Australian aesthetics into the Christmas story, including the Southern Cross installation and native flower motifs. The mixed media illustrations combine watercolour, gouache, ink and pencil, with a soft yet bright colour palette.

The traditional minisheet depicts the dark, holy night that is the scene for the birth of Jesus. The domestic Christmas-card-rate stamp presents Mary looking adoringly upon the baby Jesus, with a golden glow surrounding them both. The three Magi, or wise men, are depicted on the international Christmas-card-rate stamp. The Gospel of Matthew tells the story of three Magi who followed a star from the East (most likely Persia) to Bethlehem, to welcome the newborn

King and present him with gifts: gold (both valuable and beautiful), frankincense (a spiritual essence) and myrrh (a sacred anointing oil). The Magi are often presented in three life stages: young, middle-aged and older, though some biblical scholars believe the Magi numbered three to represent the three known continents of Africa, Asia and Europe.

The three secular stamp designs are a folksy take on some key traditions that are enjoyed at Christmas time: putting up and decorating a Christmas tree; the giving and receiving of gifts; and, for children, writing to Santa in the hope that their Christmas wishes will be granted.

This stamp issue takes us back to 1643, the year Captain William Mynors sailed past a small green island in the remote Indian Ocean and, because it was Christmas Day, Mynors gave the name to the uninhabited volcanic isle.

Here we see Santa recreating this first sighting. The island and surrounding waters are home to a rich variety of birds, reptiles, crustaceans, and mammals, many of which greet Santa to join in the Christmas festivities. These include booby birds, frigatebirds, the Emerald Dove and Golden Bosun, crabs, Green Turtles and a friendly Dugong.

Today, the Christmas Island National Park offers some protection to the island's extraordinary and unique biodiversity, which has been threatened by historical phosphate mining and invasive introduced species.

The illustrator of this stamp issue is talented Melbourne-based artist Rosie Marshall. Rosie has illustrated numerous children's books, advertisements and private commissions.

Important notice

On occasion currency has been sent to the Australian Philatelic Bureau in the mail to cover the cost of an order. Whilst this practice is rare, we would like to remind all our customers that this method of payment cannot be accepted.

Australia Post advises that this is in keeping with guidelines for mail processing as set by the Australian Postal Corporation Act 1989.

Planned withdrawal dates may be changed without notice to meet emergent postal requirements. Advice of such changes will be published retrospectively in the first available Stamp Bulletin Australia. Contact the Australian Philatelic Bureau (FREECALL 1800 331 794 within Australia, +61 3 9887 0033 overseas) or visit auspost.com.au/stamps for the current price at the time you place your order. Hours of operation are 8:30am to 5pm AEDT. The price of stamps and related products, souvenir items and numismatics are correct at the time of printing but are subject to change. The price of numismatic products is subject to valuation changes. Contact the Australian Philatelic Bureau, or your participating Post Offices to check the current price at the time of placing your order.

IMPORTANT: APPLIES TO ALL LOCAL AND OVERSEAS ORDERS WHEN PAYING BY CHEQUE

Philatelic items can also be purchased online via the online shop at auspost.com.au/shop/collectables
